SENATOR CHAMBERS: Relax.

SENATOR COMBS: Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Take a deep breath. My fangs are retracted.

SENATOR COMBS: (Laugh) Thanks.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Combs, why are you making that motion?

SENATOR COMBS: Well, there was a very pregnant pause, and the Clerk looked my way and that look in his eyes, I could just tell he wanted some help.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you made the motion?

SENATOR COMBS: I felt like he was asking me to do that.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Have you looked at these E & R amendments?

SENATOR COMBS: Um, frankly, no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But you have...

SENATOR COMBS: I'm not on the E & R Committee. I usually trust what the E & R Committee members and their chair bring to the floor.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's what I was going to ask you. So you do have confidence in these amendments being what they ought to be; therefore, you made the motion?

SENATOR COMBS: That's correct, given the history of the Enrollment and Review Committee.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And considering the confidence and trust I have in you, Senator Combs, I'm going to vote with you, although had the chairperson of the E & R Committee made the motion, I would have a great deal of discussion. So you saved him this
