another jurisdiction or is not currently adjudged mentally incompetent; have been a resident of this state for at least 180 days. For purposes of this section, resident does not include an applicant who maintains a residence in another state and claims that residence for voting or tax purposes. Have had no violations of any law of this state relating to firearms, unlawful use of a weapon, or controlled substances, or of any similar laws of another jurisdiction in the ten years preceding the date of application; not be on parole, probation, house arrest, or work release; be a citizen of the United States; provide proof of training. The design and form of the permit shall be prescribed by the superintendent of law enforcement and public safety. It shall list the permitholder's name, address, expiration date of the permit, and contain a photograph of the permitholder. Permitholder shall continue to meet the requirements of Section 7 of this act during the time he or she holds the permit. If, during such time, a permitholder does not continue to meet one or more of these requirements, the permitholder shall return his or her permit to the Nebraska State Patrol for revocation. And if the permitholder does not return his or her permit, the permitholder is subject to having his or her permit revoked under Section 13 of this act.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, that's all that's in Section 7, correct? You read all of Section 7.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is that correct?

SENATOR COMBS: Yes, I did.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: There's nothing in Section 7 that says what happens if a person does not comply with what is there, other than that you turn in the permit or the State Patrol can revoke it. Isn't that true?

SENATOR COMBS: Yeah, let me flip over to Section 13 and see if there's anything else in there. Permit me to read 13, very quickly?
