FLOOR DEBATE

March 10, 2006 LB 1175

question, to me, all carry different levels of importance and I would say, just because I said no to your previous question or just because I would say, no, none of them are really extremely important, you know my philosophy. I've talked to you about it. There are other people out on this floor who brought those provisions, Senator Chambers, and I think that they would have a different...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR FRIEND: ...feeling about the level of necessity of those provisions...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But to who...

SENATOR FRIEND: ...than I do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: To whom am I addressing my questions?

SENATOR FRIEND: To me, and that's understood and I...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: For whom and only whom can you actually answer?

SENATOR FRIEND: I can speak for myself.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you have an opinion about these various measures?

SENATOR FRIEND: Yes, I have an opinion on just about...yeah, on each of them, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And since my time is almost up, I'll stop now until I'm recognized again. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You're recognized now, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Friend, have you read about an old king from ancient Israel known as Solomon?

SENATOR FRIEND: Yes.
