FLOOR DEBATE

March 10, 2006 LB 1175

now and, as Solomon, I would like to say that, Senator Chambers, I'd rather see someone kill the whole thing than strip pieces out of it and divide it up and say this is...and cannibalize it and say this is the best way to go.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: In other words...

SENATOR FRIEND: I'd rather see it all go away than cannibalize this.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: In other words, what you're saying is you'd like to take the coward's way out and let somebody else make the decision that may...

SENATOR FRIEND: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...have to be made.

SENATOR FRIEND: No. I think you're making an assumption there based on...I believe...look, two of these provisions are mine.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So which are the more important of those?

SENATOR FRIEND: Well, I think you're asking for a value judgment that I...first of all, there are other people involved. I gave you, I think, a pretty legitimate answer...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That you value...

SENATOR FRIEND: ...and I don't think it's a coward's way out. I think that what we're...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator. You may continue, and this will be your third time, as you know.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I know. But we'll have time to talk more.

SENATOR FRIEND: I think it's...I think it's a...if you would allow me to elaborate....

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.
