FLOOR DEBATE

March 14, 2006 LB 1208

SENATOR BOURNE: It is.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Is that clear to you?

SENATOR BOURNE: Yep.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And then the next step, the next line, Select File amendments, as we go through Select File we'll add or subtract again, depending on what amendments are adopted to the mainline bills.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay, and when on those boxes in lines 32, for both the '06-07 and the '08-09 years, do the potential expenditures in lines 18 through 27, when are they reflected in the outlying years, upon passage or upon their arrival on General File?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well now, I'm not sure I understood your question, but you're talking about the boxes in line 32, which show the variance from the minimum reserve?

SENATOR BOURNE: Oh, I'm sorry. I'm down on...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Is that what you're talking about?

SENATOR BOURNE: ...down at the bottom there on thirty...

SENATOR BEUTLER: What line are you on, Senator?

SENATOR BOURNE: Thirty-nine and forty-one. Are the potential A bills reflected in those, or only after the bill is passed?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Only when the bill is passed. Then it would move from line...for example, if they were on Final Reading right now, and then they passed, they would move from line 38 back up to line 26, and be added in or subtracted there.

SENATOR BOURNE: So...

SENATOR BEUTLER: If they're A bills, they'd be added; revenues that are lost would be subtracted, for example.
