section and not another section I have no idea.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So they don't really need what we're talking about here anyway, do they?

SENATOR FOLEY: Oh, no, I wouldn't say that at all, Senator. I wouldn't (inaudible).

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, did they say they're going to comply with Title X if we do this and come into this program?

SENATOR FOLEY: They need not comply with Title X in order to come into this program. If...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But they had to at one point?

SENATOR FOLEY: If they had had interest some years ago, and I'm not sure they even existed that many years ago, I think they're fairly new, but if they had existed years ago when the last solicitation was published by HHS,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, if they're...

SENATOR FOLEY: ...it's my understanding they could not have qualified under the requirements of that particular solicitation.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If they're interested in coming into the program now and you state that they can right now, why don't they?

SENATOR FOLEY: No, I'm saying that they can if we go forward with this compromise arrangement that Senator Janssen and I have come to an agreement on.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is it because there's not enough money? Is that why we need to go forward with this in order for them to come in? Or because of that sentence you put in where they don't have to offer all of these services?

SENATOR FOLEY: No. No, no, no, it's not that section at all,
