FLOOR DEBATE

March 22, 2006 LB 968

an apartment setting, could be an individual home that a person with developmental disability could live in.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Could a...

SENATOR BYARS: But it's a person that's living within the community, integrated into the community, and hopefully part of that community.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: There would be nothing to prohibit a housing authority from establishing, in a unit or a section of its holdings, a facility which would provide such services to the developmentally disabled children of tenants or tenants themselves, would there be?

SENATOR BYARS: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If a housing authority were to do such a thing, that housing authority would be exempt from these taxes? Is that true or false?

SENATOR BYARS: Under current statute, apparently not. Apparently, there must be a sales tax paid.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If your amendment were adopted.

SENATOR BYARS: And I'm not sure. I can't answer that question for you, Senator. I'm not...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR BYARS: I don't know.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Byars, did you vote for the ethanol amendment?

SENATOR BYARS: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. That's all I will ask you, Senator Byars. And this is one of those amendments which it would seem would not be difficult to support. Senator Landis
