Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

March 22, 2006 LB 990

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I acquiesce. I concur. Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I like acquiesce. But anyway that's all that I will offer, Mr. President. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you. You've heard the opening on FA575. Senator Wehrbein, did you wish to address? He waives his right to speak. Further discussions? Seeing no lights on, Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close. Senator Chambers waives closing. The question before the body is, shall FA575 be adopted to LB 990? All in favor vote aye; opposed, nay. Voting on the adoption of the Chambers amendment, FA575. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 36 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of Senator Chambers' amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The Chambers amendment has been adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would offer FA576. (Legislative Journal, page 986.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to open on FA576 to LB 990.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Mr. President and members of the Legislature, some of us over here in the "Culture Corner" were looking at how little light, how little candlepower we have here, and I was saying that in the old days when people couldn't read it didn't matter if they had not much light, because they didn't need it anyway. But with the collective religion in this Chamber, including young Senator Bourne, I wish all of you all would get together and say in unison, "Let there be light," and we'll see how much pull you have because you know whose is the power, and it's not OPPD. OPPD is doing all they can for us here--or NPPD. We need some light around here. Well, (laugh) I guess we're not going to get it. This amendment might strike some fire and generate heat instead of light. But on page...I'm going to get this on the gadget. On page 2, in line 14, after the word "management," I would insert...before I do that, I must
