FLOOR DEBATE

March 22, 2006 LB 990

of lemming pie, haven't you, Senator Stuhr? Most people have. How many of you want to be in a lemming pie? Senator Connealy is sitting there nodding. But in all seriousness, and this amendment is serious; Senator Wehrbein took it seriously; and we've had a discussion that has been more or less on point. If my amendment is rejected...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...then when we do get to Select File, as I'm sure this bill will tonight, I'm going to have some additional questions to find out exactly what this bill is designed to do. I'm not saying that Senator Wehrbein has misled us or that he hasn't made clear when he explains something what it was he was explaining. But I think there's an area which I have not been able to make clear as being of concern to me and which my amendment is intended to address. Mr. President, I will ask for a call of the house and I will accept a machine vote.

SENATOR CUDABACK: There has been a request for a call of the house. All in favor of the house going under call vote aye; those opposed vote nay. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 1 nay, Mr. President, to place the house under call.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The motion was successful. The house is under call. All unauthorized personnel please leave the floor; unexcused senators report to the Chamber. The house is under call. The house is under call. All unexcused senators please report to the Chamber. Senator Combs. I can't see you out there so I'll just start reading the names: Senators Johnson, Cornett, Raikes, Schrock, Chambers, and Beutler. Thank you for checking in. Senator Kruse, Senator Schrock. All members are present or accounted for. Request for a board vote on the question before the body. All in favor, adoption of the Chambers amendment, FA576, vote aye; all opposed vote nay. Voting on adoption of the Chambers amendment, FA576, to LB 990. Have you all voted on the question who care to? Record, Mr. Clerk, please.
