FLOOR DEBATE

March 23, 2006 LB 746

when he finds this information out, is how does this additional $1 court fee that would be dedicated solely to Legal Aid of Nebraska, how does this interrelate with their current funding via...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: ...the Legal Aid and Services Fund that is through the Commission on Public Advocacy.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Synowiecki. Senator Flood, your light is on. You are either recognized to speak or close.

SENATOR FLOOD: Close.

SENATOR CUDABACK: I'm sorry. Another light came on, so you're recognized to speak.

SENATOR FLOOD: I will...I'll go ahead and turn my light off and I'll close, if that's okay, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Okay. Thank you. Senator Synowiecki.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. Senator Flood, I just turned my light on because I thought you were going to get this additional information relative to the...Commission on Public Advocacy has within its purview the Legal Aid and Services Fund. That is funded with, I believe, it's $3 or $4 of court fee cost and Legal Aid of Nebraska receives in excess of $1 million through that fund. And I guess my question is, is how does this current funding stream through court fees that is a...serves as a conduit to Legal Aid of Nebraska, how does that mesh with the current amendment, AM2842, in the sense that these additional monies, they will not, however, be able to expand their scope of services that they deliver to the indigent? And again, I hate to be redundant, but
