FLOOR DEBATE

March 23, 2006 LB 1208

SENATOR FISCHER: How many programs, education programs, does that $8 million or $9 million go to right now?

SENATOR RAIKES: Well, the biggest consumer of funds at the moment is the need-based aid support. Second...

SENATOR FISCHER: Is that for the college, postsecondary...?

SENATOR RAIKES: Yes, that would be for postsecondary students. And that's to support the Nebraska Scholarship Program, I think is the name of the program. Then,...

SENATOR FISCHER: Do you...excuse me. Do you have a total on that? How much money goes for need-based aid in this state?

SENATOR RAIKES: Roughly, out of the lottery funding, is roughly $4 million. Now, there is some additional money appropriated from General Funds that goes to that program, so that the total funding...I don't know, I could get you that, but I don't have that number off the top of my head.

SENATOR FISCHER: So that's $4 million out of the $8 million to $9 million. Where does the rest of the money go currently for the education programs?

SENATOR RAIKES: Okay. We already mentioned that just for the last two years, we had this...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR RAIKES: ...reorganization incentive money, $1 million a year for two years. And then I mentioned before that during the budget crunch, for lack of a more descriptive term, the state went through, we took lottery money and basically just put it into the General Fund. So...and I think that just ended last year, if I'm not mistaken. I mean...or, actually ends this year. So to some extent, the advent of these two programs coincides with the return of the lottery money to the Education Innovation Fund rather than being directed to the General Fund.

SENATOR FISCHER: I believe I heard you say earlier that about
