FLOOR DEBATE

March 28, 2006 LB 898

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: Correct.

SENATOR JANSSEN: All right. Thank you, Senator Langemeier. You know, I...members, I thought that our open meetings laws were pretty sufficient prior to this legislation. There was always advance notice of a closed session, and so on and so forth, with the agenda being...and public notice of what was going to be discussed that evening or afternoon. So I believe this is a step in the right direction. I'm sure that it gives the parties who will be discussed at that meeting some advance notice on what is happening. So I know Senator Jensen just told me, he said, about our agendas, is that a 24-hour notice of what we're going to be discussing in here? (Laugh) So you want to look at that situation also. With that, thank you. I give the rest of my time back to Senator Schimek if she would like to have it.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, thank you, Mr. President and members. I know the question has come up a couple times now, and existing statute does provide for 24-hour notice, that's what existing statute is, or 48 hours before the scheduled commencement of a meeting of a city council or village board scheduled outside the corporate limits of that entity. So generally speaking, 24 hours is the rule. Now, we can discuss all day whether it should be longer. My personal opinion is it should be longer. But you know, this has been the tradition for a long time, and we did not touch that. And maybe in some instances, 24 hours is necessary. I don't know. I don't know enough about the business of villages and cities. And Senator Janssen, would you like to respond, or ask me a question?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes, Senator Schimek. What...have there been problems in the past with the open meetings law?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I...in that regard, I don't recall any testimony on that point from either the interim study that we
