March 29, 2006 LB 1256

are totally based on my ignorance here because I haven't read this closely yet. The programming...once the endowment agreement is entered into between the Department of Education and the provider, how long is that agreement for? Let me start with that. Is it a period of years, a term, or is it indefinite?

SPEAKER BRASHEAR: I can't answer that, but I will get you the answer.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. And once it's entered into, the board consists of people appointed by the Governor, except for the designated positions. Is that the mechanism by which we see that the bulk of this money which continues to be public money is spent in accordance with the will of the people?

SPEAKER BRASHEAR: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: If you want to put it that way.

SPEAKER BRASHEAR: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. And if programming goes bad or becomes controversial in some way, or becomes inappropriate, is there any other mechanism for terminating this relationship or changing what's going on, other than the change over time that can be brought about by a Governor through a series of different appointments?

SPEAKER BRASHEAR: You've correctly identified the methodology. It'd be political pressure brought upon the elected Governor who is making the appointments.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. So we should know that if they're...if something becomes of interest to the public, it will take a period of time to change it, perhaps, if the board of trustees is not responsive to pressure.

SPEAKER BRASHEAR: I agree with that in theory, Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yeah, and I'm not being...
