FLOOR DEBATE

April 3, 2006

LB 994

SENATOR ERDMAN: That would be fine. We are on Final Reading though, so you'd have to...

SENATOR THOMPSON: Well, it's been returned for a specific...

SENATOR ERDMAN: Right, but we'd have to have that as a part of your whole amendment. We couldn't just amend your amendment because we're returning from Final.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Okay.

SENATOR ERDMAN: I would appreciate that. I'm just saying, practically, I don't know if it's that easy. We would have to actually redo your whole amendment because we're only returning for one specific amendment, or we could readvance the bill and then bring up another amendment to change that provision, bring the bill back, and make that technical change since we are on Final. But I would...

SENATOR THOMPSON: How about this, Senator Erdman? Can we sit down with...if you would permit me to...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR THOMPSON: ...pass it in this form, sit down with the department, and see if we can set that aside as a...

SENATOR ERDMAN: I'm...and just to be...

SENATOR THOMPSON: Okay.

SENATOR ERDMAN: ...clear, Senator Thompson, I'm not trying to hold up your amendment. I'm just trying to look at it from a practical application.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Right. You know, I think that all the parties really want to work together on this. It isn't...

SENATOR ERDMAN: Sure.
