acting as trustee for the College Savings Plan of Nebraska, and has wide experience in the field. Also, underneath this agreement, the State Investment Officer has fiduciary responsibility to make all decisions regarding the investment of the money in the trust, including the selection of all investment options and approval of all fees and other costs charged to trust assets pursuant to the directions, guidelines, policies established by the Nebraska Investment Council. The amendment ensures that the accounts created under the Long-Term Care Savings Plan are freely transferable also between spouses. All of this is a result of a meeting between my staff, Aaron Hendry; Jeremy Hosein with Policy Research Office; Robert Hallstrom, Nebraska Bankers Association, the Nebraska (sic) Federation of Independent Business; Brendon Polt, Nebraska Health Care Association; Galen Ullstrom, Mutual of Omaha, an association of health insurance plans; Scot Yank from the Treasurer's Office; Carol Kontor, State Investment Officer; Mary Jane Egr, the State Tax Commissioner; Dave Dearmont, Department of Revenue; and also Rob Hotz from the Treasurer's Office. I would just ask that this amendment be adopted. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Jensen. You've heard the opening on AM3019. Open for discussion. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I'd like to ask Senator Jensen a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Jensen, you've heard the term "crime families" before, haven't you?

SENATOR JENSEN: Crime families?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Crime, c-r-i-m-e.

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, I have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Crime families. And you're aware that from time to time they would be in actually lethal competition with
