FLOOR DEBATE

LB 965

SENATOR JENSEN: ...since we are lame ducks, a few of us. But to put all that in order to assure that we have a proper program.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And also, people talk about lining up ducks so they can bump them off, too, to keep in context...in the context I started. Is it true, Senator Jensen, that you had some role to play in bringing us to where we are with this proposal you're offering?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes. However, after it passed on General File, a number of these people got together without my encouragement.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is it true that you have been dubbed the "Godfadda" of this particular proposal?

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Could you be dubbed that?

SENATOR JENSEN: (Laugh) You know, I kind of borrowed this idea from Senator Redfield. She...I must give her credit, she was the one who brought this first, last year.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, she could be the "Godmudda," right?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, she could.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, so if I put it like that, would you accept the designation?

SENATOR JENSEN: (Laugh) Yes, I would.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. And I'm going to support it. But to be frank with you, I had been somewhat distracted, and I didn't get precisely what it is that we're doing. But in that last few seconds that you stated it, it became very clear to me. Thank you.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Senator.
