asking for those services. We didn't always have 17. I don't know what we started out with, but...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, as you see things curtailed or circumscribed in one way or another, would you expect to see these optional services curtailed first?

SENATOR JENSEN: No.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Why is that? That's of interest to me.

SENATOR JENSEN: Well, you know, we even addressed some of these services back when we were in our budget cut and we reduced the number of people that could get a pair of glasses. I don't know, I think we had an unlimited number. I don't know what the number we came up with, but we reduced it from unlimited to a specific number of pair of glasses that we would pay in a year's period of time. We reduced some cosmetic services for...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator.

SENATOR JENSEN: ...dental in...for infants or youth.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you. Senator Erdman, and this will be your third time, as you know.

SENATOR ERDMAN: Thank you, Mr. President. I have agreed to yield my time to Senator Chambers so he can continue his discussion.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, almost 5 minutes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President. Thank you, Senator Erdman. Members of the Legislature, I'm very serious about what I'm discussing. Senator Don Pederson did say that the approach was not to do any prioritizing but to look overall at what the program is and come up with something. I'm oversimplifying, but to give a notion of the direction that this group apparently went. That is not satisfactory to me, because I don't deal with overall pictures. If you were in my office and saw the number of calls and letters that I get from people, then you'd perhaps
