FLOOR DEBATE

April 4, 2006

LB 1249

that's what your map would be. It doesn't take it by county. It's not big blocks of red. It's rather like a hand print across those counties. And the obligation is there to provide...there is a response which provides service inside that, you might say, hand print where the current pipes are, where the current pipes are.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Landis, is there a question in this for me, or you're just now...

SENATOR LANDIS: No, I'm sorry. There wasn't. That's right. I'd said that there wasn't, but thank you. I apologize for not making that clear. The map, as I said, is visually misleading because the maps to be provided would look differently. The fear that somehow there is...you're giving Cherry County...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: ...to somebody but no service, is mistaken.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Landis, time is up, Senator.

SENATOR LANDIS: Oh, thank you very much.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you. Senator Foley, followed by Senator Hudkins and others. Senator Foley.

SENATOR FOLEY: Thank you, Mr. President and members. I wanted to speak a little bit further on this obligation to serve question. Senator Friend did a great job of explaining how the bill works in that regard, but I just want to amplify it just a little bit. Over the last couple of months my office has been trying to assist a telecommunications customer way out in Sparks, Nebraska. The Sparks area is within the defined service territory of Qwest Communications, and this particular customer is not receiving adequate service, and she has complained and complained and complained, and finally now, the Public Service Commission has initiated a complaint proceeding against Qwest Communications, because the PSC believes that indeed that customer is right. She is not getting adequate service. So they have formally initiated a complaint proceeding against
