FLOOR DEBATE

April 10, 2006 LB 745

SENATOR STUTHMAN: If they were that intelligent, yes, it could happen.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And you think that cannot happen or you hope it won't happen?

SENATOR STUTHMAN: I just hope that it wouldn't happen.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you believe that Guido is an honest man?

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you know who Guido is?

SENATOR STUTHMAN: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then how do you know he's honest?

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Because I trust a lot of people.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: He doesn't know a note of music but he carries a violin case. Do you think Guido is a dangerous man?

SENATOR STUTHMAN: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you play these machines that you're talking about?

SENATOR STUTHMAN: No, I do not play these machines because...

SENATOR ENGEL: Time.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: ...we do not have these machines.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR ENGEL: Senator Stuthman, you're recognized.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Thank you, Mr. President and members of the body. First of all, I just want to comment a little bit on this
