FLOOR DEBATE

April 10, 2006 LB 745

that was put out to us from Senator Jensen. These pictures there, when you look at them, yes, they are slot machines because you can see there's an A and a queen and a deuce and three of the same across. That is, they are slot machines, I'll totally agree with that. But that is not what we're talking about here. What we're talking about is the machine that was brought in house here several weeks ago that we talked about. And maybe I should engage in a little discussion with Senator Jensen, if he'd be available.

SENATOR ENGEL: Senator Janssen or Senator Jensen? Senator Janssen, would you respond please?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: I maybe was thinking of the other Jensen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Oh, okay, sorry about that.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: But I could engage in conversation with Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Okay.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Senator Janssen, do you understand, you know, the parimutuel racing part of it? What does that really mean?

SENATOR JANSSEN: You know, I'm such a good gambler, Senator Stuthman, that I don't really understand what parimutuel wagering means. I know that if you bet $2, you have a 10 to 1 chance of winning. And that's about the extent of my racing ability.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Okay, I'll explain to you of what the betting portion of horse racing is. You bet. You bet $5 to win, place, or show, or whatever you want to do, and that goes into a pool. As you see at the tracks, you'll have the win pool, the place pool, the show pool. You're betting that that horse is going to win or place or show. Those dollars, those dollars are the ones that are divided up after that percentage is taken off. And that's the same thing, that's the same situation that we have in
