omissions, including violation of his oath of office, relate to his official duties because the people of Nebraska constitutionally prescribe that the governance of the University of Nebraska shall be vested in a Board of Regents elected from districts, in a manner prescribed by the Legislature. The Legislature prescribed that candidates for the office of University of Nebraska Regent must conduct their campaigns by complying with Nebraska's election and election accountability and disclosure laws.

10) Clear and convincing evidence persuades the Legislature that C. David Hergert's acts and conduct committed during and after the 2004 primary and general election campaigns for the office of University Regent involved official misconduct, false oaths, election fraud, false statements, false reports, and obstructions of government operations. As a result, Hergert's election is tainted. He entered office under false pretense, held office while continuing to commit more violations of law, and his conduct constitutes obstruction of the general governance of the university, and of the state of Nebraska.

11) Clear and convincing evidence persuades the Legislature that Hergert perpetrated his election campaign misconduct by filing a false, deceptive report with the commission on January 11, 2005, after he took the oath of office and became a University Regent. By so doing, he falsely reaffirmed his previous false, deceptive, untimely, and unlawful filings with the commission, and falsely reported more information. This official misconduct is inconsistent with the duty of a University Regent to obey the law, including election and accountability laws, while in office. It constitutes unlawful acts and violations of Nebraska Revised Statutes 28-924, 49-14,134, and 28-915.01, and obstructed operations of the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission and the state of Nebraska contrary to Nebraska Revised Statute 28-901.

12) Clear and convincing evidence persuades the Legislature that C. David Hergert used the United States Postal Service, or private or commercial interstate carriers, to transport false reports, affidavits, and submissions to the commission for the purpose of accomplishing a scheme or artifice to defraud the
