LB 869 amends Nebraska Revised Statutes dealing with the State Athletic Commission.

The bill removes amateur boxing and sparring from the jurisdiction of the State Athletic Commissioner. The bill also reduces the number of members of the Athletic Advisory Committee from six to five and removes the requirement that one of the members shall have been active in amateur boxing.

The Department of Revenue indicates that the fiscal impact of LB 869 will be minimal.

We agree with the Department of Revenue's estimate of fiscal impact.

COMMENTS
DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE: The department's analysis appears reasonable in that the loss of the relatively small amount of revenue received from amateur boxing can be easily absorbed.

LB 869 removes amateur boxing and sparring matches from the jurisdiction of the State Athletic Commissioner (Commissioner). The Commissioner would retain jurisdiction to license, regulate, and tax professional wrestling, professional boxing, professional sparring, amateur mixed martial arts, and professional mixed martial arts events. In addition, LB 869 reduces the Athletic Advisory Committee from six members to five, by removing the member with experience in amateur boxing.

Revenue impact of the bill is expected to be minimal. There is minimal savings to the Department to implement the bill.
