LB 673 would repeal the Black-Tailed Prairie Dog Management Act. It is estimated that there would be no fiscal impact to state agencies except to minimize potential duties of the Department of Agriculture and the Game and Parks Commission.

Any fiscal impact to political subdivisions would depend upon whether a county has undertaken management actions.

Explanation of Estimate:

The proposed legislation would repeal the Black-Tailed Prairie Dog Management Act. Currently the Act can impact the Commission in two manners. First, the Commission may assist requesting counties with the development of a coordinated management program and second, land owned or controlled by the Commission would be subject to provisions of any adopted programs.

No fiscal impact is anticipated by the proposed changes.
