This bill would change provisions relating to presentence reports and examinations.

The Supreme Court states that this will be a new duty for Probation staff. They estimate two additional staff will be required for the Lincoln and Omaha probation offices at an estimated General Fund cost of $129,000. See the attached response of the Supreme Court for additional details.

The Nebraska State Patrol estimates no fiscal impact from this bill.

Explanation of Estimate:

LB 504 will increase General Fund expenditures, as estimated below, to provide copies of presentence investigations and examinations to counsel to the defendant and the prosecution within seven days.

Assumptions:

1. Paper copies would be provided. LB 504 does not specifically provide for electronic transmission of copies. Printing costs would be a county expense. If mailing is necessary, this would also be a county expense.
2. LB 504 allows the court to order redaction upon application by counsel. This would be a new duty for Probation staff. Although the number of redactions applied for would vary between Probation districts it is estimated that the equivalent of two FTE would be required, an estimated $129,000 General Funds. These positions could be placed in the busiest Probation offices in Lincoln and Omaha. This is based on approximately 8,000 presentence investigations conducted in 2014, half or 4,000 requiring redaction and one hour per document to complete the redaction for a total of 4,000 hours or approximately 2 full-time positions.
