LB 62 repeals Sections 79-898 and 79-899 which provide penalties for public school teachers and school board members convicted of misdemeanor offenses related to teachers wearing dress or garb indicating that the teacher is a member or adherent of any religious order, sect, or denomination. The penalties related to conviction may be up to $100 and the costs of prosecution. Teachers may also be committed to the county jail for up to 30 days.

The Supreme Court indicates there have been no charges or convictions pursuant to these sections of state law since the court began tracking convictions in the early 1990's with its current computer system. So, it is assumed there will be very little, if any, loss of revenue from fines, if the bill is passed.
