LB 451 changes provisions related to elections.

Section 1 strikes language barring election commissioners in counties having a population of more than 100,000 inhabitants from becoming a candidate for an elective office during their term of office or within thirty days after leaving office.

Section 3 changes provisions related to the Governor filling vacancies in the Legislature.

Section 4 changes provisions related to the Governor filling vacancies in the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska.

Section 9 requires candidates for an elective office specified in section 49-1493 filing to appear on the ballot for election during the calendar year in which the election is held, to file a statement of financial interest for the preceding calendar year with the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission on or before March 1 of the year in which the election is held.

The Secretary of State estimates no fiscal impact.

The Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission estimates the need to revise and reprint certain forms and guides at a cost of $1,200. This estimate appears to be reasonable.
