LB 920 allows insurance property and casualty producers to charge incidental fees for premium installments, late payments, policy reinstatements and other similar services. Violations of the bill will subject the insurance producer to the provisions of the Unfair Insurance Trade Practice Act. If producers are found to be guilty of a violation, a monetary penalty of up to $1,000 may be assessed for nonflagrant violations. A higher penalty may be assessed for flagrant violations. Fines are deposited in the Permanent School Fund, the interest from which is distributed annually to school districts. Any revenue from fines pursuant to the bill is projected to minimal.
