Any Fiscal Notes received from state agencies and political subdivisions are attached following the Legislative Fiscal Analyst Estimate.

This bill would allow the State Disbursement Unit (SDU) which collects and disburses child support to use a subsequent month's payment to cover the charges for returned checks. After one returned check, the SDU could require a form of guaranteed payment. Current law allows two returned checks before such guaranteed payment can be required.

The provisions in the bill are contrary to federal law and would put at risk federal child support funding in the amount of $16.6 million and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families funding in the amount of $56.6 million.
