Explanation of Estimate:

LB 1195 clarifies that data which is a public records in its original form shall remain a public record when maintained in computer files regardless of the form in which it is stored.

LB 1195 expands certain provisions of public records law as such public records relate to citizens and residents. The bill would allow more records to be exempt from public records requests, would allow both citizens and residents to have a right to access information on the public finances of government, and would allow all persons, not just citizens, access to public records through equitable relief.

There is no fiscal impact.
