LB 107 would adopt the Redistricting Act. The bill proposes process and procedures for conducting the decennial redistricting. The bill would have no fiscal impact from what otherwise would occur in a redistricting process.

Section 8 directs the Governor to call a special session to provide district boundaries if the process is not completed during the regular session. While a special session would result in additional costs, it's unknown if that would occur and a special session could be called in the absence of this language.
