Any student who is suspended will be subject to the procedures set out in the Student Discipline Act (§79-254 to §79-294) that are applicable to a long-term suspension, if the student, in the same semester that the short-term suspension is supposed to be implemented, has already been suspended two or more times from one or more schools within the school district and the prior suspensions have excluded the student from attendance for a total of nine or more school days.
