This bill would repeal locksmith registration requirements: Sections 28-1402, 28-1403, 28-1404, and 28-1405.

Counties may see a small revenue loss under this bill because of the loss of the $5 fee for locksmith registration certificates, and they will also have a workload decrease because they will not have to prepare the registration certificates.

Lancaster County estimates no fiscal impact.

LB 169 will have no fiscal impact on Lancaster County as we issue on average ten locksmith certificates per year. The cost of staff time to prepare the certificates exceeds the small amount of revenue generated.
