LB 175 adopts the Residential Tenant Clean Slate Act. The bill states that if a trial court issues an order dismissing an eviction proceeding against a tenant, the trial court shall issue an order immediately granting clean slate relief to such tenant.

Expenditures:

The Supreme court would have an impact on judicial and court staff workload and the court case management system (JUSTICE) from LB 175. The clean slate and sealing procedure will take additional time for court staff and judges. JUSTICE cannot be modified fully to implement LB 175 as written. The agency estimates that it would cost $50,000 minimum.

Explanation of Estimate:

LB175 will have an impact on judicial and court staff workload and JUSTICE, the court case management system. The extent to which workload will be increased cannot be determined at this time, but the clean slate and sealing procedure will take additional time for court staff and judges. JUSTICE cannot be reprogrammed to fully implement LB175 as currently written. However, a preliminary FY23-24 modification estimate: $50,000 minimum, General Funds to maintain the Automation Cash Fund.

Note. This fiscal note may be amended at a later date if the Judicial Branch is able to receive more information regarding the intent of LB175.
