*Does not include any impact on political subdivisions. See narrative for political subdivision estimates.

LB 310 requires a registered voter who is requesting to vote early to pay all postage costs related to mailing the request to the election commissioner or county clerk. In addition, the timeframe in which registration applications shall be issued or mailed is changed from “after the second Friday preceding the election” to “after the third Friday preceding the election” (emphasis added).

No fiscal impact.
