LB 1026 amends statute related to electricity generation.

The bill disallows an electric supplier from ceasing operations at any electric generation facility if there are customers waiting for the electricity that would be produced, and provides the following exceptions:

- If it is required by law
- If it is mechanically unsafe
- If it is damaged beyond repair due to natural disaster
- If continued operation is uneconomical

The exception must be identified by the governing body of the utility.

No Fiscal Impact
