LB 804 provides confidentiality and privilege protections for peer support counseling sessions for law enforcement, emergency services personnel (fire/dispatch/EMS), and Nebraska National Guard members following critical incidents or traumatic events. Covered communications are confidential, not public records, and generally not admissible or subject to discovery in judicial or administrative proceedings. The bill does not limit the use of evidence obtained through independent observation or normal employment channels and includes exceptions for specified situations (e.g., threats of suicide or criminal acts, mandatory reporting, admissions of criminal conduct, or express consent).

There is no fiscal impact.
