This bill modifies provisions related to practicing pharmacy including permitting the transfer of prescriptions for non-controlled substances between pharmacies for the purpose of valid refills. Additionally, the bill eliminates the semiannual report to the Department of Health and Human Service currently required of pharmacists in Nebraska who dispense any of the medications listed in the Parkinson's Disease Registry Act which is currently required by Nebraska Revised Statute § 81-6,103. The bill maintains the report required in § 81-6,102 that is completed by physicians within 60 days of a patient's Parkinson's diagnosis to DHHS. There is no fiscal impact.
