LB322 amends the Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Act as follows.

1. Prohibits an official or employee in the executive branch of state government from engaging in nepotism, as defined, and
2. Prohibits an official or employee in the executive branch of state government from acting as a supervisor to his or her family member.

LB322 also provides for an exception. The head of an agency may, upon written showing of good cause, grant an exception to the prohibitions. The written showing of good cause is to be filed with the Political Accountability and Disclosure Commission and is to be a public record.

There appears to be no fiscal impact to state government with the exception of minimal one time administrative expenses for the Political Accountability and Disclosure Commission estimated at $750.

COMMENTS
UNIV. OF NE – Agree with estimate of impact.
ACCOUNTABILITY AND DISCLOSURE – No basis to disagree with estimate of cost but the agency has sufficient appropriations to handle these minimal costs.
