This bill establishes the Health Care Plan Advisory Council. The council would be responsible for developing a comprehensive plan for the state to ensure health insurance coverage for all state residents. The council would be appointed by the chairperson of the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee.

It is assumed that some of the work outlined in the bill could be done by existing legislative staff. A consultant may be needed to conduct part of the work and provide specific expertise. Depending on how the work is divided, the consultant costs could range between $50,000 and $150,000. The cost for travel reimbursement for council members is anticipated to be $1,000 to $2,000 in FY 10 and FY 11.
