LB 588 would establish the Dog and Cat Purchase Protection Act. The act would become operative on January 1, 2010. The Act would establish procedures for retail purchasers of dogs or cats to recover veterinary fees or purchase costs or to receive another animal in exchange if the animal purchased was determined unfit for sale by a licensed veterinarian. In the event of noncompliance by a pet shop, commercial breeder, casual breeder or dealer, the retail purchaser would be allowed to initiate court proceedings.

Because it is unknown how many, if any, court actions would be filed, any fiscal impact upon the judicial system as a result of LB 588 is indeterminable.
