know where I am in, in that scenario. I guess I am pleading, at some point, at the crowd watching both sides with all good intentions and sincerity, fighting to the end, and I'm asking you, the crowd, when will you finally have mercy at some point and say to the people of Nebraska, we have other things we have to do? Because I know, and so do you, that if you say, isn't this interesting, let's bring them back again, that the gladiators, as the paper this morning, I think, showed to pride, some ego and a lot of personal feelings will come back and perform for you again. And this time it's time for the body to take charge and it's time for you to lead and it's time for us to move. I move we adjourn.

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk, do you have something for the record?
