and we don't have a system in our law to recognize that difference, when you make your change you resubmit your forms, your policies and your agents. Now, what are we going to do? We're going to approve them all, aren't we? But we're going to take them out and look at them and stamp them with another rubber stamp. It's unnecessary. So long as these items were approved by the department when they were initially brought to the state, they stay in effect while the transfer is made. If the provision is not here, unfortunately, that change of domicile will occasion a new filing of all of the forms we already have approved, totally unnecessary, therefore, the reason for this bill. It's standard practice elsewhere. I urge its adoption and advancement and applaud Senator Haberman for bringing this measure.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Haberman, did you wish to close? Okay, the question is the advancement of the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.
