LB 48, 52, 84, 161-189

the Executive Board will meet in...the Reference Committee will meet in Room 2102 at three-fifteen today for purposes of referencing bills, Reference Committee at three-fifteen.

Mr. President, new bills. (Read LBs 161-189 by title for the first time. See pages 82-88 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, in addition to those items, I have requests from Senators Chambers, Nelson, Schellpeper, Hefner, Lamb, Crosby and Hartnett to add their name to LB 48 as co-introducer; Senator McFarland and Schellpeper to LB 52 as co-introducer and Senator Carson Rogers to LB 84 as co-introducer. (See page 88 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: No objections, so ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, an announcement from the Agriculture Committee and signed by Senator Rod Johnson, the Ag Committee has selected Senator Owen Elmer as its Vice-Chairperson. Mr. President, I believe that is all that I have.

PRESIDENT: Ladies and gentlemen, we're about to start the proceedings for the afternoon, and we're very grateful to have with us Father Dawson this afternoon for our invocation. Would you please rise for Father Dawson.

FATHER DAWSON: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Father Dawson. Please feel free to stay with us as long as you like. We're privileged to have with us this afternoon the Nebraska National Guard who will present colors. Would you please rise.

PRESENTATION OF COLORS

PRESIDENT: Ladies and gentlemen of the National Guard, we appreciate your being with us and presenting the colors today. If I might say a word to those who will be escorting the folks in today, it will be necessary that we do it a little bit different than we usually do it. When one group of ushers brings in their group, please bring them up onto the stage and then retire back to your seats until the inauguration proceedings are over with and then I will call you back one group at a time to take your group back, because if we should all come in and all stay up here on the podium, we wouldn't have section analysis of everything that is in the bill. But I thought with a couple of days advance notice you might have a chance to prepare and at least feel comfortable when the bill comes up for special order on Friday and that is the purpose of the memorandum.

SENATOR LAMB: You are out of order, Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Am I? Thanks.

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Ashford, Senator Beyer, Senator Chambers, these are some of the people that we're looking for at this point. Senator Lindsay, Senator McFarland. Please come to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. I believe Senator Bernard-Stevens has indicated that we can begin the roll call, Mr. Clerk. In reverse order, there has been a request for reverse order.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 548 of the Legislative Journal.) 20 ayes, 18 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the amendment.

SENATOR LAMB: The amendment is not adopted. Mr. Clerk, do you have some items?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President, I do. Mr. President, Senator Abboud and Lowell Johnson, or, I'm sorry, Senator Abboud would like to add his name to LB 116; Senator Lowell Johnson and Beck to LB 325 as co-introducers. (See page 549 of the Legislative Journal.)

Senator Landis has amendments to LB 92 to be printed. (See pages 549-50 of the Legislative Journal.)

Business and Labor reports LB 176 to General File with amendments. That is signed by Senator Coordsen. Education reports LB 140 to General File with amendments, LB 336 General File with amendments. Those are signed by Senator Withem as Chair. (See pages 550-51 of the Legislative Journal.) That is all that I have, Mr. President.

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Chizek, would you care to offer the motion to recess for lunch?

SENATOR CHIZEK: You don't want to come back after lunch. I

PRESIDENT: The committee amendments are adopted. Senator Conway, are you going to handle the bill?

SENATOR CONWAY: Yes, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Okay.

SENATOR CONWAY: Mr. President and members, LB 349 brings Nebraska law on our credit for reinsurance into conformity with the model law that was enacted by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. We followed that law as of 1985 and conformed with that. And our current law in Nebraska is patterned after that act. What 349 simply does is incorporates the amendments that have been enacted through the National Association of Insurance Commissioners since that time and, basically, what it does it expands the opportunity for the reinsurance funds to be invested not only with what had previously been defined as federal reserve institutions but to what's now called qualified United States financial institutions or, in other words, it allows insurance companies to invest their trust funds under the reinsurance trust funds in Nebraska state regulated banks as well as those that are federally regulated. So it's a minor alteration that clears up the question of whether or not they can use other financial institutions in Nebraska as well as those that are federally chartered. So I think Senator Landis, through the committee amendments, pretty well described the bill and it really is bringing us into conformity and allows these funds to be in state banks as well as our federally chartered banks. So, with that, I offer the advancement of LB 349.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is the advancement of the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement of 349.

PRESIDENT: LB 349 advances to E & R Initial. LB 176.

CLERK: LB 176, Mr. President, offered by Senator McFarland. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 5, referred to Business and Labor, advanced to General File. I have Business and Labor Committee amendments pending, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Coordsen, are you going to handle those? Okay.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Mr. President and members of the body, the Business and Labor amendment is printed in the book, and on page 4, line 15, after "occupation" the amendment reads: Disability shall not include an addiction to alcohol, controlled substances, or gambling which is currently being practiced by the employee. For the purpose of this subdivision, "does not reasonably preclude" shall mean that an employer shall not be subject to more than de minimus expenses. This bill, by changing the Nebraska definition of disability, brings up to us the problem of that we have no reasonable accommodation standard in Nebraska. This bill will establish that particular situation in the workplace. The amendments are the result of a committee hearing and they are to make sure that the employers are responsible only for de minimus expenses and that we don't want a suit brought that would require substantial investment on the part of an employer in order to comply with the reasonable accommodation change that is made in statute. So this is similar language to federal law but federal law only applies to employers dealing and contracting with the federal government, this would apply to all employers in the State of Nebraska in accommodating for handicapped people. So, with that, I would move the amendment.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is the adoption of the committee amendments. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: The committee amendments are adopted. Senator McFarland, on the advancement of the bill.

SENATOR MCFARLAND: Thank you, Mr. President. Fellow senators, this is a bill that was suggested by the Nebraska Equal Opportunity Commission. It brings some consistency to the statutes in that Fair Employment Practices Act. I think with the amendment we have allayed any concern about there being substantial or excessive costs by employers in order to accommodate to a handicapped or a disabled employee. I think in this fashion it is a good amendment, it is a good bill and I would urge its adoption. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Wesely, please, your light came on.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you. Mr. President and members, if Senator McFarland would yield, just a question. And this is...I just took a look at the bill and I wasn't really...I still...I'm trying to look at it kind of quickly here, but the intent is to provide for broader...what is the intent again? From reading the committee's summary, you are trying to deal with mental and physical handicaps and no longer allowing those to be discriminated against in employment. Is that correct?

SENATOR MCFARLAND: Yes, generally. The current law, Senator Wesely, is un...the language is unrelated to such person's ability to engage in a particular (interruption).

SENATOR WESELY: Oh, okay, I see it now.

SENATOR MCFARLAND: In effect, under present law, employers did not have to make...apparently did not have to make any accommodation whatsoever. This will say that they can make an accommodation for a disabled employee but they don't have to expend substantial cost to do it. As long as it's a de minimus expense to make that accommodation, they would be required to do it and they can't discriminate against an employee because of that. Now does that clari...does that answer it?

SENATOR WESELY: Well, just...the only reason I'm mentioning it I was just speaking last night to a group of individuals that suffer from depression and they were talking about problems in employment, discrimination against them where they apply for a job and they end up not being able to get hired even though they don't feel that their disability impairs their ability to perform the job and they feel they're being discriminated against. And I just wondered, will this help in those circumstances? And it's just ironic that it came up and maybe this doesn't even apply to that but I'm just asking because I had this meeting just the other night.

SENATOR MCFARLAND: I don't know how...I don't know how it would apply to their specific situation. I guess it would depend on what a de minimus expense in order to accommodate their depression...you know, if you have to give them a five-minute break every two or three hours so they can go take a pill or something or, you know, maybe that's a de minimus expense. But if you had to get some kind of...have a doctor on staff permanently that...

SENATOR WESELY: Yeah.

SENATOR McFARLAND: ...could deal with the problem, then that's more than a de minimus expense, I think.

SENATOR WESELY: So it would depend on their particular circumstance.

SENATOR McFARLAND: It would depend on the circumstances of each case. I guess what some of the employers were concerned about, they gave an example of someone working in a grocery store who had to use some kind of device to help them walk or to help them be in a wheelchair or something and that you would have to make the aisles bigger so that they could work there.

SENATOR WESELY: Oh.

SENATOR McFARLAND: And that would just be too substantial an expense for a grocery store to have to comply with that. So I think with the amendment language it does require them to accommodate but the de minimus expense standard would be used and that's been defined and applied in federal cases and I suspect it will be applied again so it will be clearly defined.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you very much, Senator McFarland.

SENATOR McFARLAND: All right.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Hartnett, please.

SENATOR HARTNETT: (Microphone not on) ...members, if I could also ask Senator McFarland a question. It kind of follows what Senator Wesely was talking about. How about people that have seizures? Is that covered? Or I don't know, I'm just simply asking for a point of inquiry.

SENATOR McFARLAND: I really wouldn't know specifically on that, Senator, I'm sorry...

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Okay, thank you.

SENATOR McFARLAND: We could certainly look that up and answer that question for you and bring it up on Select File...

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah.

SENATOR McFARLAND: ...too, if you would like.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah, okay, I just...you know, I listened to the comments, so thank you very much.

SENATOR McFARLAND: All right, thanks.

PRESIDENT: Senator McFarland, would you like to close on the advancement of the bill?

SENATOR McFARLAND: Thank you. I would just move the advancement of the bill.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is the advancement of the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement of LB 176.

PRESIDENT: LB 176 advances. May I introduce a guest, please, of Senator Doug Kristensen. Under the north balcony, he has Mr. Gary Thompson of Red Cloud, Nebraska. Gary, would you please stand. Thank you, Mr. Thompson, for visiting us today. Move on to LB 140, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 140 was a bill that was introduced by Senator Chizek and Conway. (Read title) The bill was introduced on January 5, referred to the Education Committee for public hearing, advanced to General File. I have committee amendments pending by the Education Committee.

PRESIDENT: Senator "Cap" Dierks, are you prepared to handle this as Vice Chairman? The committee amendments, I'm talking about. Pardon me? Senator Chizek, do you want to handle that? All right. Senator Chizek.

I am talking about even some of the Class VI schools, and as long as we have that problem, I think we need to take it easy, tread water, so to speak, do an interim study, and I believe this bracket motion provides for that concept. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is, shall the bill be bracketed until January 15, 1990? All those...Senator Dierks.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a motion on the desk. Senator McFarland would move to return LB 176 for an amendment.

PRESIDENT: Senator McFarland, please.

SENATOR MCFARLAND: Thank you, Mr. President. I put in this motion for purposes of clarifying the intent of the amendment that was added to the bill. This is a bill that I introduced at the request of the Nebraska Equal Opportunity Commission to clarify some language concerning the definition of disability. The Nebraska Chamber of Commerce and Industry suggested an amendment to the bill that was adopted by the Labor Committee and is included in the bill at this time. That amendment, I'll just read it to you, said disability shall not include an addiction to alcohol, controlled substance or gambling which is currently being practiced by the employee, and then it goes on, for purposes of this subdivision does not reasonably preclude shall mean that an employer shall not be subject to more than a de minimis expense. There have been...a few senators have asked me, well what is meant by that amendment as far as a de minimis expense? I'll read you intent language that was provided and that I have drafted and prepared. It says when a person who meets the other criteria of disability under the statute has filed the complaint with the Equal Opportunity Commission, it is the intent of this bill that the commission will look at the expense or accommodation or adjustment that would be needed that would not reasonably preclude the specific person from doing his or her job. Determining de minimus expense would be done on a case-by-case basis. It is not the intent to increase barriers to employment for disabled citizens of Nebraska, but neither is it the intent to subject employers to exorbitant expenses in order to accommodate just one employee. The de minimus expense means that employers will not be burdened with an exorbitant expense for just one employee, but if a reasonable de minimus expense can be made so that that employee can have a job, then that is what is required. With that, I'll withdraw the motion.

March 2, 1989

PRESIDENT: It is withdrawn. Anything further on the bill, Mr. Clerk?
