PRESIDENT: Senator Baack, please.

SENATOR BAACK: Yes, Mr. President and colleagues. This is another very simple bill. It just makes a change in the requirement for when the first notice is given when property is taken by a distress warrant. And it says that the first notice will be given within nine days, rather than within five days. This is done simply for the areas of the state that have only a weekly newspaper, and they cannot abide by the state statute of notify...of giving public notice of property taken on distress warrants within five days. If that property is taken on a Wednesday, they have to wait clear until the next Thursday before that can be published because that is when most of the weekly newspapers come out. This will just allow them to comply with the law. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion? If not, the question is the advancement of the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Senator Baack, you looking for a friend? (Laughter.)

SENATOR BAACK: I found one, I hope. (Laughter.) Well, he's not a very good friend, but...
