probably won't, then I'm going to try again on Select. I'm going to try to have more information because I definitely want some additional things in the record. I am surprised that Mr. Gunter could come to the Appropriations Committee, that is so tight-fisted on other things, and tell them, I need to more than double the size of the hole and the Appropriations Committee, not in unison, all right, you say need it, you got it. It's not justified. And I hope that we will vote to take this proposition out and there should be an objective study by an outside agency, not even the legislative staff, but an agency that understands the area of corrections and the one to do the study should not be selected by the Department of Corrections.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The question is to strike original Section 19. Again, if you would care to delete, vote yes; if not, vote no. The house is under call, Senator Chambers. Please, members, will you please check in. Record your presence. Senator Schimek, please. Thank you. Senator Goodrich. Senator Conway, the house is under call. Senator Conway, the house is under call. Thank you. Did you ask for a roll call? I...thank you. Mr. Clerk, proceed with the roll call.

CLERK: (Roll call vote read. See page 2167 of the Legislative Journal.) 22 ayes, 19 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The motion fails. The call is raised. Anything for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, I do, yes, thank you. Study resolution, LR 149 by Senator Kristensen. (See pages 2168-69 of the Legislative Journal.)

I have an Attorney General's Opinion addressed to Senator Landis. (See pages 2167-68 of the Legislative Journal.) That's all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. The next item.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senators Hartnett and Korshoj would move to strike Section 20.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Hartnett, please.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Mr. Speaker and members of the program, what
