He began his career in the state in 1934 over at UN-L shoveling coal. Phil now has reached the age of 80 and is starting his fifty-second year of service to the State of Nebraska. The Building Maintenance Committee feels very few people have attained his accomplishments, especially with the dedication he has provided over the years to the State of Nebraska and the 309 Task Force. We feel that Phil deserves this sincere recognition and I urge your consideration of the passage of this resolution.
